Hons. Ollie James and W. P. Thorne will be in Columbia at an early date. Mr. James is an able and influential man in State politics, and a very forcible speaker. Mr. Thorne has been before our people, and has quite a number of friends in the county. Due notice will be given of their coming.

Next Monday night will be the regular meeting of Columbia Chapter, No. 7. R. A. M. Important business to transact, and all members who were elected officers at the last meeting are urged to be present.

J. O. RUSSELL, Retiring High Priest.

Mr. Finis Baker writes the News "that while hands were opening up a public road, two miles below Amadaville, they dug up a human skeleton. There was no sign of a coffin. No one here knows of any person having been buried there, and I know it was not done at any time in the last thirty years."

Mrs. Ruth Campbell, wife of Mr. Zach Campbell, who lives on Green river, died last Sunday morning about 2 o'clock. She was a very estimable young woman, only nineteen years of age. She was married to her husband about three years ago. She was loved by all who knew her, and will be greatly missed in the neighborhood where she resided.

Several weeks ago we announced that on the 17th of this month Columbia would begin to receive another daily mail. We understand that no bid sent in was accepted by the Postmaster General, all of them being considered too high. Mr. J. B. Barbee, of this place, forwarded the lowest bid, and correspondence is now going on between him and the Department, and an agreement may be reached.

Last Sunday the 23rd, at the home of Rev. L. Dunbar, in Russell county, Mr. John Woodbridge and Miss Mollie Hughes, were united in marriage. Woodbridge is a young man of good habits, a thrifty farmer and a gentleman. The bride is an accomplished daughter of the late Albert Hughes and possesses all the charms for making life worth living. The News extends congratulations.

Asa Turner, of color, was tried last Friday for maliciously cutting Charles Coffey. Mr. Coffey is a citizen of Russell county, but the trouble occurred in Adair, several years ago. It seems that Coffey had the darky under arrest and that trouble arose near Glenville, resulting in the prisoner seriously cutting the officer about the face. On the witness stand the darky told a straight story of self defense which was corroborated by Mr. John Willis and others who testified. The jury was out but a few moments, returning a verdict of acquittal.

Invitations to be present at the marriage of Mr. Charles E. Runyan, of Chicago, Ill., to Miss Cora Lee Bower, of Jeffersonville, Ind., have been received at this place. The ceremony will be performed Wednesday, October 3d, at 6:30 p. m. Miss Bower is a cousin of Mrs. E. G. Atkins, Mr. Geo. Walford and Miss Mont Walford, this city. She is also very pleasantly remembered by her many friends made during her recent visit to Columbia.

The Farmers Home Fire Insurance Company, Junction City, Ky., $200,000 strong. Insures all kinds of property except steam mills, hemp and tobacco. Rates reasonable. Insures against Fire, Lightning and Wind.

Z. M. STAPLES, County Director. T. A. MURRELL, Agent. A. N. WELLS, for many years with the Continental, General Manager.

The trial of Porter Fletcher for seducing Miss Alice Wooten was entered into last Friday and the case was given to the jury Monday afternoon, after being argued by Judge Jas. Garnett and Hon. J. F. Montgomery for the defense, and Mr. Rollin Hurt and Commonwealth's Attorney Aaron for the State. The jury took the case about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon and Tuesday forenoon they reported that they could not agree and were discharged. The jury stood, nine for conviction, three for an acquittal.

Rev. G. W. Perryman, of Middleburg, will be in Columbia to-morrow night and will preach at the Baptist Church. He is a native of Adair county; a logical and interesting speaker, and a large congregation should greet him.

Since writing the above Mr. Perryman has decided, at the request of friends, to deliver his lecture, subject, "A Live Wire" at the court-house on the night mentioned above. He will not preach. No admission to the lecture.

A living picture, showing the necessity for homes for poor and destitute children was before the people of Columbia last Sunday night. A bright little boy, six years old, who was secured in Casey county, was placed in view of the audience. His father is in the penitentiary for life, his mother and brother in jail at Liberty, charged with unlawfully selling whisky. The boy will be given a good home and perhaps will never know of his earliest surroundings.

All the material for the Plum Point bridge has arrived, and the structure will be completed by the middle of next week. With a bridge across Green river the business of Columbia should be materially enhanced. Before an order was made for the bridge much complaint was made by citizens because they could not reach this place during a rise in the river. In a few days the bridge will be up, and people living beyond the river are respectfully invited to Columbia to do their trading.

For several years the Baptists have been considering the advisability of establishing a college in the bounds of the Russell's Creek Association. At a meeting of their Association, held at Salem, Taylor county, two weeks ago, a committee, Judge Jas. Garnett, of this city, being one of the gentlemen appointed thereon, was selected to raise funds for that purpose and decide upon a location. The building will probably cost $12,000 or $15,000, and Campbellsville is anxious to be selected as the place of location. We nominate Columbia, believing it is the best located town in the bounds of the Association.

Last Thursday morning at Wesley, Russell county, the spirit of J. Bryant Nelson took its flight to the world untired by the living. Mr. Nelson had been battling with fever for several days but was unable to overcome it. He was in his 52nd year and was an unmarried man. He was a fine business man, a good citizen, and will be greatly missed in his part of the country. He had been in the mercantile business for a number of years at Wesley, Russell county, being one of the firm of Nelson Bros. Success crowned his efforts and his estate is worth several thousand dollars. He was a cousin to our townsman, Mr. Wm. F. Jeffries. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. E. Perkins at Concord Church four miles east of Jamestown and the body was placed to rest in the graveyard at that place, a large crowd of friends and relatives being present at the burial.

The Speaking Monday.

Last Monday afternoon Hon. John W. Colyer, Democratic Elector for the Eleventh District, and Hon. Ben V. Smith, Democratic candidate for Congress in said district, spoke to a crowd of about 250 voters in the court-house.

Mr. Colyer spoke first and presented many reasons why every man who is in favor of honest government, both State and National should vote the Democratic ticket. He took up the State issues showing that the Democrats were right upon every proposition now agitating the minds of the people. How they had cheerfully submitted to the courts and how they were sustained upon every proposition. He spoke of Taylor and his gang who foully murdered Governor Goebel, the abuse of the pardoning power and Taylor's flight from the State. He showed up McKinley's imperialistic policy, telling the people that such a course was bound to lead them to a monarchial form of government. His whole speech was argumentative and convincing.

Hon. Ben V. Smith followed Mr. Colyer, and made a short and telling speech in advocacy of Democratic principles. He urged the Democrats to be diligent, promising to cut down the Republican majority in the Eleventh district. Mr. Smith came to Adair comparatively a stranger, but his speech aroused his friends and the Democrats will support him to a man.

Valuable Mill For Sale.

We offer our entire mill property for sale. It consists of a 60 barrel roller mill, saw mill, two automatic engines, planers and all kind of wood working machinery, elevator, 6,000 bushel capacity, ten acres of land with five good dwellings, well watered and convenient. This property is all good and doing a good business, mill running day and night. It is within four hundred yards of the court-house. If you want a bargain and mean business, call on or address the Columbia Mill Co., Columbia, Ky.

They Are Very Pleasant.

Smokers attention. He has come at last. The Never Down, Log Run and Keystone cigar. Its made of cabbage leaves and rotten stock, bad flavor. If you don't believe it, try one and you will like it. Ask your merchant for it. Manufactured by S. L. HOWITT, Somerset, Ky.

The young people of Columbia and vicinity are indebted to Miss Marietta Rowe, who lives a few miles out of town, for one of the most enjoyable entertainments given for many months. Her parlor doors were thrown open on the evening of the 19th, and her friends being numerous, at an early hour every room in her spacious home were filled with the gay throng who were out for a delightful time. Several hours were spent in social converse, and the usual parlor games were indulged in, interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. At 10:30 o'clock refreshments, consisting of ambrosia, cake, etc., were served, and if any one failed to enjoy him or herself it is not to be laid at the door of the young lady, who did everything in her power to make the entertainment exceedingly pleasant to all in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Rowe are hospitable by nature, and are perfectly delighted when the young people gather at their home.

Mr. J. W. Gardner, District Superintendent of the Kentucky Children's Home Society, has been in our midst several days, and last Sunday night at the Presbyterian church he gave an exposition of the workings of the Society. Rev. T. F. Walton, in a short and well-worded talk introduced Mr. Gardner, who said in part: "The institution was founded for the purpose of caring for poor and destitute children. By legal proceedings children of a county without homes are placed with the society, the society finding them comfortable abodes in well-regulated families. Children who are in the poor-house are taken therefrom and frequently adopted by influential and wealthy families. Mr. Gardner had two little boys with him, one from Breckinridge county, the other from Casey county. He has carried five from Green county to the home, several from Taylor, has the promise of twelve from Russell and will doubtless get several from Adair. He is doing a grand work, and so well pleased over our people with his presentation of it, that a local board was organized, and fifty dollars subscribed for the cause.

It is often said that Columbia is located in that part of Kentucky where broomsedge abound and men grow "looking backward" we recall quite a number of men, who started in life here, and after making an enviable reputation among their home people, left for wider fields, their reputation for brilliancy and worth growing as they advanced in years. It does us good to see favorable mention of former Columbians, and we always take pleasure in reproducing whatever is said of them. Just now our attention is called to the candidacy of Mr. Lev. Russell, son of the late Judge W. E. Russell, who desires to represent Marion county in the next Legislature. He is a Democrat and will be nominated without opposition, and the nomination is equivalent to an election. While Lev is comparatively a stranger to the people of Adair county, his father was born and reared in our midst, and his reputation as a lawyer was made at the Columbia bar. We believe young Russell will be the next Representative from Marion county and that he will make an enviable reputation during his stay at the Capital.
